Do you long to feel a closer connection to God? To discern His voice, experience His peace, and live in His joy?

In this 8-week Bible study, An Unexpected Revival: Experiencing God's Goodness through Disappointment and Doubt, you will encounter a unique picture of revival through Ezekiel's prophecies. God chose to spark revival through people who seemed counted out, cast aside, and disregarded.

Ezekiel reveals that we are not the first people to believe our doubts and doubt our beliefs when circumstances spiral out of control. But God pursues us with His goodness desiring to bring revival to our broken hearts.

Through a study of the book of Ezekiel, God offers an invitation to:

- experience His faithfulness when surrounded by uncertainty
- reignite our hope instead of losing heart
- realize the call of God, reawakening us to our purpose
- rest in contentment rather than dwell in disappointment

An Unexpected Revival sparks a fire in our longing heart to feel renewed excitement in our relationship with God. Instead of going through the motions, checking the boxes and wondering why God feels so far away, Ezekiel teaches us to come close and invite God to fill us with fresh fire. God offers His joy, peace, and purpose to any who seek it. Do you long for revival?

This 8-week study will also include video teaching through Vimeo.

ENDORSEMENTS

"Struggling with questions of God's goodness and His love for you as you journey difficult times? This book from Erica Wiggernhorn is for you! An Unexpected Revival will remind you that when all seems lost, God is always there, always working, always has your formation in mind. It will renew hope in your soul as you are reminded that He is the God who turns lifeless bones into armies of conquerors. You will be renewed with hope, strengthened, encouraged for the journey ahead as you walk with Jesus!"

—Steve Engram

Executive Director Venture Church Network and Lead Pastor of Desert Springs Community Church, Goodyear, AZ

"Erica Wiggernhorn does a masterful job of walking us through the book of Ezekiel in her newest Bible study, An Unexpected Revival. I've avoided studying Ezekiel because it seemed so difficult to understand—until now. Erica paints a picture for us in each chapter of what was happening at the time. She guides us through discovering the meaning and how we can make application to our lives today. This study on revival is very timely for the days we're living in. It makes me long for revival—in my heart, in my country, in the world."

—Crickett Keeth

Women's Ministry Director; author of On Bended Knee and Before the Throne

"If ever there was a time in history when we needed revival, it's now! Erica invites us into the wild and wonderful prophecies of Ezekiel. If your spirit is weary and your bones feel dry, this is your study! Dive into Ezekiel for An Unexpected Revival, and your soul will be refreshed!"

Conference speaker, coach, and author of The Extraordinary Power of Praise

- Ezekiel is a bit of a departure from your earlier Bible studies. What made you want to do a deep dive into this book? Why now?
- When people say they want to experience revival, or they are praying for revival, what do they really mean?
- There is a phrase God speaks in the book of Ezekiel over 50 times. What is it and what does it mean?
- How would you explain this type of intimacy with God? What would that look like on a practical level in our lives?
- What do you think prevents revival from happening in our lives/churches/nation?
- What role does faith play in revival?
- You said earlier that you think revival is on the horizon. For those of us praying for revival, where do you think it will first happen or start?
- You mentioned that people long to be more sensitive to the Holy Spirit in their lives. What specifically does the Holy Spirit do in the lives of Jesus followers?
- Where can people connect with you and find out more about the new resource from Moody Publishers, An Unexpected Revival?
- What made you become passionate about Bible teaching? Why can you empathize with the person out there who struggles to make Bible reading or Bible study a priority?
- What are we missing when we don't personally study scripture? What practical steps would you offer to someone who wants to grow in their ability to read and study the Bible?
- Tell us something unexpected or surprising you learned while working on this book.
